> THE COTTON TAX .- The impression exists with some, that this tax was suspended in its operation only on the crop of 1868. This is an error. The repeal was uncon ditional, as will be seen by reference to the act approved February 13th, 1868-as follows:

An Act to provide for the exemption of cotton from internal tax. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assem-bled. That all cotton grown in the United States after the year 1867 shall be to the exclusion of all others, by the exempt from internal tax; and cotton imported from foreign countries on and after November 1, 1868, shall be exempt from duty.

In reply I have to say that the act of February 3d, 1868, abolishing the tax on cotton, is so clear as to admit of no doubt as to its meaning and effect. The language of the act is, "that all veto it even if it should pass both ternal tax." This operates to exempt not only the crop of 1868, but the crop of all succeeding years, until the act sequent legislation.
